About the Property

Nearly 7 acres on English Creek, and a home that's ready for you to move right in. The home sits on a quiet road in Egg Harbor Township, still just minutes from everything you need, but set far back enough on its 6.99-acre lot for the kind of privacy that's hard to find. Inside, this well-kept 3 bedroom, 2.5 bath home features hardwood floors on the first floor, an updated kitchen and baths, and two bay windows that fill the rooms with natural light. A fireplace adds warmth on cooler nights. Step out onto the large deck and you'll see why this property is special. It's built for entertaining, but it's just as good for slow mornings with a cup of coffee, watching the deer wander through the expansive backyard. The practical side is covered too. A full-house generator keeps you running no ...
