About the Property

Tucked along Avalon's west side, 647 Barry Road is a rare detached single family beach cottage on its own private lot not a condo or duplex offering a standout entry point into Avalon's coveted real estate market. This elevated, well-built and well-maintained 3-bedroom, 2-bath single family home is set in a lovely established neighborhood just steps from the bay and two recently refurbished public piers. The home features three nicely sized bedrooms, two baths, a fully equipped kitchen, new easy-care flooring, and bright, open living space. All without pricey HOA fees and shared ownership restrictions. A recent property survey is available, along with an existing variance for a modified handicapped ramp. The property is comfortable and ready for immediate enjoyment with ...
