About the Property

An Exceptional Opportunity Awaits in Townsend's Inlet..... Discover the charm of a true historic gem with this beautifully restored detached ranch cottage, formerly the Stone Harbor Rail Line ticket office from the early 1880's. Imagine a time when trolleys and trains were the primary means of transportation across the barrier islands of the Jersey Shore. The rail line stopped here where passengers would purchase their tickets to Stone Harbor. This vintage home has been thoughtfully renovated and modernized to incorporate contemporary conveniences while preserving its unique character. The residence features a spacious living room, a modern kitchen, two inviting bedrooms, and a well-appointed bathroom. Recent upgrades include new flooring, trim, windows, roof, and siding, along with a st ...
