About the Property

Positioned directly on the bay, this beautifully constructed two-unit condominium offers breathtaking panoramic water views and unforgettable sunsets from its sought-after first-floor location. Built in 2019 with exceptional attention to quality, the home begins with a durable Superior Walls foundation and showcases premium finishes throughout. The ground level features a private garage, shared storage area, and a secure private storage room with endless possibilities for a game room, hobby space, or additional entertaining area. Inside, expansive sliding glass doors frame stunning waterfront vistas and fill the open-concept living space with natural light. The stylish kitchen is appointed with black stainless steel appliances, granite countertops, Fabuwood cabinetry, and durable Core-Te ...
