About the Property

Complementing the oceanfront home is a beautifully redesigned and thoughtfully updated rear residence, offering exceptional privacy, flexibility, and surprisingly expansive ocean views. Positioned as a second back-lot home, this residence enjoys open sight lines toward the Atlantic, enhanced by underground utilities that preserve clean, unobstructed vistas. From the upper level and expansive deck, residents can take in sweeping coastal views and refreshing sea breezes a rare advantage for a non-oceanfront property. The home features four bedrooms and two full baths, with a well-designed layout ideal for both full-time living and guest accommodations. The first floor includes a spacious family room and two bedrooms, creating a comfortable and functional living space. Upstairs, the open- ...
