About the Property

Unlike your typical condo building this unit (1 of 4) with front porch and spacious rear deck offers more privacy, charm and accessibility. First floor living with few steps. Plantation shutters throughout, hardwood floors, gas heat & central air not often found in most condo buildings along with front & rear access directly to unit. Also features a large private storage shed, generous shared patio area with convenient outdoor shower. All adjacent to the private rear deck. Perfect after a day at the beach. Each condo has a private grill, making outdoor dining easy and enjoyable. City parking lot half a block away and no meters on the block. This is condo living with space, comfort, and added perks you won't usually find. Low condo fees & no pending assessments! Short walk to Beach, pr ...
