About the Property

Step inside to the bay laid out before you north and south water views, unobstructed, with Townsend Inlet just beyond. Newly built and minutes from Avalon's world-class beaches, this bay front residence offers private dock, wide bay views, and high-end finishes at a price that compares favorably to anything across the bridge. For the boater and the fisherman, it's a rare kind of address. Built by Rockwell Coastal, the home wears classic shore architecture well a Hardie cedar-shake-style siding in a light blue, custom Azek board-and-batten trim, and interiors dressed in a high-level package of shiplap and board-and-batten throughout. Five bedrooms, three and a half baths, a large garage, and a four-stop elevator are arranged across an open, light-filled plan. The first floor is the ...
