About the Property

Welcome to this classic Cape May home, built in 1914, completely renovated in 2013 for year-round living, and lovingly maintained by the same family for over 50 years. Just two blocks from the beach with off-street parking, this 4-bedroom, 3.5-bath gem sits in a prime location where you can enjoy the luxury of being mere steps to the sand and a short bike ride to the iconic Washington Street Mall, known for its premier shopping and dining. Located on one of the most desired residential streets in Cape May, you are greeted with an inviting, covered front porch with awnings and plenty of seating. Inside, the first floor features teak floors, an open concept layout with living and dining areas showcasing lots of natural light, plus a generously sized chef s kitchen with a Viking range, atta ...
