About the Property

Welcome to this exceptionally well maintained Cape Cod with an inviting front porch, a four year old roof and two year old air condition heat pump. This home is one short block to the Delaware Bay on a quiet street that stops behind the Villas Wawa which translates to little traffic. There is one bedroom and a full bath one the first floor and two large bedrooms and a second full bath on the second floor making this home perfect for all ages and physicality's as well as providing privacy for all occupants. The open kitchen flows to the dining room and sunroom. There is a cozy living room, laundry room and "catch all" room. The rear yard is privacy fenced and offers two storage sheds. There is a patio area and plenty of room in the rear for adding a pool and entertaining.
