About the Property

This substantially reimagined and expertly renovated home sits 6 homes removed from the beach on one of the most sought-after beach blocks in Avalon. 18th Street is heralded both for its proximity to the center of Avalon s thriving entertainment area and also for a low dune topography, which allows for sweeping ocean views from the second, third, and grandfathered fourth story decks of this home. The exterior architecture blends Hardie shingle siding, board-and-batten detailing, and stacked stone to create a timeless coastal aesthetic. A sandblasted marble walkway leads your guests inside to a dramatic three-story foyer anchored by a striking custom staircase. Spanning the width of the home, the first-floor family room functions as a true secondary entertaining space and rivals the main ...
