About the Property

Nestled in a peaceful and picturesque neighborhood, this charming older home has been remarkably maintained and cared for throughout the years by the same owner who constructed it. Full of character and timeless appeal, the property offers a warm and inviting atmosphere surrounded by natural beauty and quiet surroundings. As you enter the front door to a spacious foyer, a staircase to your left and a great room with cathedral ceilings to your right you are surrounded by natural light shining in from tasteful windows and French doors leading out to a deck and gazebo where you can let your thoughts indulge in the possibilities of your new home. Walk a little bit further in and you'll find yourself to an eat in kitchen with stainless appliances, granite counters and an island ready to be us ...
