About the Property

Your Shore Home Is Waiting And It's Everything You've Been Looking For Every shore home search starts with the same three questions How close to the beach How much work does it need When can we move in Here, the answers are easy one short block to the sand, absolutely nothing to do, and ready for you by mid-August. All that's left is packing your bags. From the moment you arrive, this home feels different. Like a classic Hamptons beach house, it features charming metal roof accents and sweeping covered porches that give it curb appeal that turns heads on the block. A two-car garage with dedicated storage rooms keeps everything organized, while an outdoor shower and a fully fenced yard make post-beach days an absolute pleasure. Step inside and you'll immediately feel at home. Th ...
