About the Property

"Welcome to a home defined by 44 years of care and pride of ownership. Located just moments from the bay in North Cape May, this property is a true hidden gem its generous, spacious layout is far more expansive than it appears from the curb. The home offers a highly versatile design perfect for multi-generational living or guests. To the right of the front entrance, you'll find a private, retreat-style primary suite (or in-law quarters) separated by a custom pocket door. This self-contained space includes its own living room with a cozy gas fireplace, a spacious bedroom, and a full bathroom. The main house continues to deliver with three additional bedrooms, a second full bathroom, and a dedicated laundry room. The heart of the home is a beautifully updated kitchen and dining area, boast ...
