About the Property

A HEAVENLY SETTING ON THE STONE HARBOR OCEANFRONT. Positioned opposite one of Stone Harbor's most beloved and enduring landmarks the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary seaside convent this extraordinary newly completed oceanfront residence at 2-111th Street occupies a setting unlike virtually any other in Stone Harbor. For generations, the convent and the Sisters who summered here have held a special place in the hearts of countless island families. But there is another remarkable benefit to this historic neighbor the convent sits approximately 30 feet farther west than this oceanfront property, creating an unusually open coastal exposure and helping produce views that are simply extraordinary. The setting is the story. A traditional oceanfront residence generally enjoys an appro ...
