About the Property

25 100th Street, Stone Harbor Oceanfront Custom Masterpiece Rarely does a home this rare come to market. Set directly on the sand with a coveted 58x110 beachfront lot, this custom-built residence blends serious engineering with true architectural artistry announced from the street by a striking copper-domed turret rising above the shingled roofline. A steel-and-girder frame and 100-year shingle roof anchor a home built to last generations, while dual tankless hot water systems keep it running efficiently year-round. Hurricane-rated glass wraps the home in unobstructed ocean views without compromising storm protection. Inside, 4 bedrooms and 4.5 baths are wrapped in a fully custom interior design, anchored by a show stopping bell-shaped hand-crafted wood ceiling soaring over the turre ...
