About the Property

Cute cottage offering an enclosed front porch, small living room, kitchen, a full bath laundry room and two bedrooms. The rear addition is currently being used as a bedroom but was originally intended as a den. This room has a vaulted wood beadboard ceiling and lots of light through the windows. The majority of the house offers ceramic tiled floors and some laminate flooring form easy care. There is a concrete driveway and walkways. There is a side deck off of the kitchen. With a little tender care this can be a comfortable and economical home.
