About the Property

Nearly an acre and a half on Route 47 in Middle Township, paired with a massive detached concrete block workshop set up for real work. Four sliding barn doors open into one large open space with block walls, a concrete floor, open rafters to the ridge, and shop lighting overhead. A two-post vehicle lift conveys with the property. The gravel drive loops through, with two connections to the road, so you can pull in one side and out the other. The land runs from the road back to a wide open lawn edged by mature trees. Room for a garden, room to work outside, and real distance from your neighbors. Inside the house you'll find wood floors in the main rooms, crown molding in the living room, and knotty pine walls and ceilings in the bedrooms, including the upstairs one tucked under the roofli ...
