About the Property

Tucked away on 3.83 secluded, wooded acres near Sunset Beach and a short bike ride to Cape May and Cape May Point, this private estate offers a rare combination of tranquility and convenience. Bordering a state park nature preserve, the property provides exceptional privacy and natural surroundings while still near Cape May's renowned beaches and downtown attractions. A two-story foyer welcomes you with cathedral ceilings and a grand staircase. The thoughtfully designed floor plan includes a sunken living room, formal dining room, and an inviting library den featuring custom built-in bookcases, a wet bar, and wine refrigerator. The spacious chef's kitchen features a Wolf range, double wall ovens, Bosch dishwasher, stainless steel LG refrigerator, and a large sunny eat in kitchen area with ...
