About the Property

Professional photos and room dimensions coming soon. Step into timeless coastal elegance in the heart of historic St. Leonard's Tract, one of Ventnor's most coveted neighborhoods where classic charm meets grand-scale living. This stately red brick beauty, dating back to 1920, rests on an oversized 60x115 lot and offers nearly 6500 square feet of well-preserved tradition and modern potential—perfectly poised for a buyer with vision, style, and a love for entertaining. From the moment you enter the welcoming brick front porch, you'll feel the warmth of this generational home. Inside, discover: 7 spacious bedrooms and 3.5 baths. Four original wood-burning fireplaces, including one in the gracious living room. A formal dining room made for gathering, and a sun-soaked breakfast nook ...
