About the Property

Come see this beautiful home in this very desirable neighborhood in Bargaintown. This home has so many beautiful upgrades starting with the extra tall custom solid wood front door that leads into the living room equipped with a gas fireplace. The living room, dining room and kitchen are all open which makes it great for entertaining. The gourmet kitchen features high end stainless steel viking appliances and quartz countertop with a custom tile backsplash. There is so much natural light from the extra tall windows and doors. All the windows have custom electric blinds. The large patio doors lead out to the deck and patio area attached to the heated in-ground fiberglass pool. The master bedroom has its own set of patio doors that lead to a private patio for the master bedroom. The master be ...
