About the Property

A striking new construction in Ocean City's coveted Gardens section, this five bedroom, three and a half bath residence will blend refined coastal luxury with thoughtful modern design. Crafted with upscale finishes throughout, the home will welcome you with an open concept layout ideal for both relaxed living and elegant entertaining. Expansive windows will invite natural light into the main living area, highlighting custom millwork, premium flooring, and a designer kitchen appointed with high end cabinetry, stone counters, and top tier appliances. The primary suite will offer a serene retreat with a beautifully finished bath and generous walk-in closet space, while four additional bedrooms will provide comfort for family and guests. One of the five bedrooms will be a first-floor junior ...
