About the Property

Immaculate custom-built home offering just under 3,000 square feet of beautifully maintained living space, perfectly positioned at the end of a quiet street with sweeping views of open fields and surrounding farmland. This four-bedroom, two-and-a-half-bath residence combines timeless craftsmanship with thoughtful updates, including major renovations in 1998 and 2007. Hardwood floors run throughout the home—even beneath the carpet in the living room—adding warmth and continuity. The kitchen is both functional and striking, featuring a newer induction cooktop accented by elegant Murano glass pendant lighting. A wood-burning fireplace anchors the living space, creating a cozy yet refined atmosphere. All bedrooms are generously sized with oversized closets, offering exceptional storage a ...
