About the Property

Equestrian properties of this scale are exceptionally scarce in New Jersey, and this seven-acre estate in South Jersey stands apart. Four of those acres are cleared and manicured, a long winding driveway accommodates ample parking, and a three-car attached garage completes the approach. The horse barn is fully operational with three stalls, water and electric service, and a loft that holds up to 200 bales of hay. Three corrals are ready for use, and scenic riding trails surround the property. New Jersey's one-horse-per-acre allowance means this estate can accommodate up to seven horses. Inside, four bedrooms and three and a half baths provide a solid, well-proportioned layout. The primary suite includes an ensuite bath and walk-in closet. The great room features a wood-burning fireplace an ...
