About the Property

Your oceanfront piece of heaven is waiting for its next owner. This boutique condominium building features just eight units, offering a sense of privacy and exclusivity, with both the building and the unit meticulously maintained. Major exterior updates have already been completed, including a newly coated roof, new stucco siding, new carpet in the hallways, new deck railings, and storage sheds—providing true peace of mind. The condo fees are among the lowest on the island in general, and possibly the lowest in an oceanfront building, making this an exceptional opportunity for affordable oceanfront ownership. Inside, the space is thoughtfully designed with a unique, city-inspired aesthetic—perfect for buyers seeking an easy shore retreat with a modern edge. The interior features a st ...
