About the Property

Tucked along a serene stretch of riverfront, this charming 3-bedroom home offers the kind of everyday escape buyers dream about. With an impressive 124 feet of water frontage, the setting feels expansive and private, where morning coffee comes with shimmering views and the gentle soundtrack of the river. Inside, the home blends comfort and function with a thoughtful layout. The eat-in nook style kitchen flows easily into a separate dining room, perfect for both casual meals and gatherings. A dedicated pantry keeps everything organized and within reach. The cozy family room is a true highlight, anchored by an expansive 11-foot window that frames the river like living artwork, bringing natural light and calming views into the heart of the home. The primary bedroom offers its own quiet retreat ...
