About the Property

Home is truly where comfort meets lifestyle in this exceptional, one-of-a-kind estate.

Known as Bears Head Preserve, this remarkable property is tucked away on nearly 15 acres of scenic, wooded land, offering a private retreat defined by craftsmanship, character, and modern comfort. Combining seclusion, a true rural lifestyle, and space for your own animals, the property features private walking trails and agroforestry, along with an educational space designed to celebrate and connect with nature. The main residence, a striking modern farmhouse, features two distinct living areas thoughtfully designed for both everyday living and entertaining. The main level showcases an open-concept kitchen, living, and dining area with sweeping views of the grounds and surrounding wildlife. A 14-foot fib ...
