About the Property

Set along a premier fairway in a coveted beach town, this beautifully built 2017 coastal retreat delivers the rare combination of seaside ease and golf-course serenity—no rear neighbors, just wide-open greens and sunsets from your own private, covered deck. Thoughtfully constructed with 2x6 exterior walls, 12" attic insulation, and Low-E glass windows, the home offers year-round comfort and efficiency while embracing an elevated, low-maintenance lifestyle minutes from sand, surf, dining, and marinas. Inside, the first floor is designed for effortless entertaining and everyday luxury. Wood-look ceramic tile runs throughout the main level, setting a crisp, coastal tone that pairs perfectly with the chef's kitchen, solid wood cabinetry, gleaming granite countertops, stainless steel app ...
