About the Property

Set on nearly 10 wooded acres just outside of town, this 4 bedroom, 3 bath colonial offers space, privacy, and a setting that's hard to find in Hammonton. The home sits well off the road, creating a quiet, tucked-away feel while still being only minutes from downtown. Hammonton is known for its strong sense of community, local restaurants, breweries, vineyards, and a downtown people genuinely take pride in. Many buyers are drawn here for the balance of space, location, and overall affordability compared to nearby South Jersey towns. Location is a big part of the appeal—you're close to Route 206 and the Atlantic City Expressway, making it easy to get north, south, east, or west. Inside, the layout is classic and functional. The first floor includes a half bath and main living areas, w
