About the Property

Located in the desirable Lower Chelsea neighborhood of Atlantic City, this impeccably maintained four-bedroom, two-and-a-half-bath corner property offers a rare blend of space, light, and modern upgrades just moments from the beach and Boardwalk. Set on a generously sized, fully fenced lot, the home is filled with natural light throughout. The expansive kitchen is thoughtfully appointed with granite countertops, soft-close cabinetry, under-cabinet lighting, and an open flow into the inviting family room—complete with a built-in gas fireplace and skylights featuring remote-controlled shades. Step outside to a newly installed Trex deck overlooking the private backyard, enhanced by an in-ground sprinkler system—ideal for both entertaining and everyday enjoyment.
