About the Property

This is the one people wait years for. Set on a rare double corner lot in Somers Point's most coveted bayside location, just steps from the water, this is an opportunity that almost never hits the market. Positioned right down the street from the new Paddle Club and Somers Point Beach, and within walking distance to the area's best dining and nightlife, the lifestyle here is unmatched. Inside, every inch is custom. Thoughtfully designed with high-end finishes throughout—custom built-ins, detailed woodwork, stunning tile selections, and shiplap accents—this home was done right from top to bottom. The kitchen is beautifully executed and flows into a sun-drenched dining area with a custom banquette and tailored window treatments. Outside is where this property really separates itse ...
