About the Property

Well-maintained 3-bedroom, 2.5-bath townhome located in Brigantine's highly desirable A-Zone. Situated in Kings Cove, this home offers a functional layout with two separate living areas, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. The one-car garage has been thoughtfully converted into an in-home gym, complete with built-in heating and air conditioning, while still providing additional storage. Enjoy multiple decks, abundant natural light, and generously sized second and third bedrooms. The spacious primary suite features a walk-in closet and private en suite bath. The home has seen key updates, offering added peace of mind. Ideally located just moments from Brigantine's beautiful beaches, local shops, and some of the area's most popular restaurants, this home offers the perfe ...
