About the Property

A great bay front home in Atlantic City..!! A deck right out of one of the top bedrooms with a breath taking water view. The house is in great condition and was recently upgraded with a brand new central air condition and heating system. All new appliances, and new bathrooms. The house has a master bedroom on the first floor with a deck off the door. Also has an In-law apartment in great shape. The location is probably one of the best ones in the AC area, with access to anything and everything that South Jersey can offer...Beach, Casinos, Shopping Malls.
