About the Property

Welcome to classic Ocean City, New Jersey at 2912 Asbury Avenue. Truly a rare find in the heart of town, this single-family home brings it back to the good ol' days. You'll love the cozy front porch, large kitchen and 4 bedrooms for all of your visitors.

Conveniently, there are also 4 off street parking spots. There are 2 full bathrooms and a powder room, the appliances, heater and hot water heater are relatively new. Though we love the charm of this unique home, you could rebuild and make your modern-day beach house a reality.
