About the Property

charming single-family home in Egg Harbor Township's peaceful residential area. This house has three bedrooms, one bathroom, and a full-size, six-foot-tall basement. The house is located on a large 100 × 100 lot. The house was constructed in 1972 and has a practical one-story design that makes it a fantastic option for investors, first-time buyers, or downsizers. Easily accessible to the Jersey Shore and Atlantic City, this location is close to schools, restaurants, retail establishments, and major thoroughfares. A large yard offers lots of space for planting, outdoor enjoyment, and potential growth. An excellent chance to own in an expanding part of Atlantic County. Enjoy a sizable yard with lots of space for gardening, entertaining, pets, and future growth when you step outside. ...
