About the Property

Welcome home to a beautifully updated 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom end-unit townhome in the heart of Smithville. Being an end unit means more natural light, a little extra privacy from the neighbors, and more outdoor space than you'd expect, all with the low-maintenance upkeep that makes townhome living in Atlantic County so easy. Step inside and experience what most townhomes can't offer. A full-size living room and a separate dining room give you real rooms to gather, host, and relax. The updated, oversized eat-in kitchen is the true heart of the home, with generous cabinetry, plenty of counter space, and room for a full table where weeknight dinners turn into your favorite part of the day. Retreat to the owner's bedroom and unwind, complete with a walk-in closet and a private slider that open ...
