About the Property

Unobstructed sunsets and Golf course and pond views. This is what you get at this amazing ranch home, sitting on the 15th green and overlooking a most picturesque pond and foot bridge, this location is truly one of a kind! Everything's been updated and meticulously maintained so you can move right in. You'll know you've found something special the moment you step onto the large front deck with Trellised roof and privacy screen. The tiled entry foyer takes you into the great room with vaulted ceilings, custom Hickory wood floors laid on the diagonal, surround sound, skylight and a gorgeous corner gas fireplace. Also open to this room is the dining room with sliders taking you to the back deck. The eat in kitchen has been totally updated with Maple cottage cabinets, granite counters and ...
