About the Property

Space, value, and upside all come together at 26 N 4th Street in Pleasantville. This 4-bedroom, 2-bath single-family home offers approximately 1,572 square feet, a private driveway, covered carport, front porch, and a large fenced backyard. The property does need some updating, but that is exactly where the opportunity is. For the buyer willing to put in the work, this home offers a clear path to sweat equity and long-term value. Similar 4-bedroom homes in the area are priced higher, making this a strong option for an owner-occupant or investor looking to buy below the improved market. The layout provides functional living space, comfortable bedroom count, and the flexibility to renovate, improve, and make the home your own. Outside, the fenced yard gives you plenty of room for entertain ...
