About the Property

Well-maintained Chelsea Heights home that beams with homeowner pride! This bright and airy home features an open floor plan, an abundance of windows, beautiful original hardwood floors, and granite countertops. Completely renovated after Superstorm Sandy, this home offers too many updates to list. Please review the Seller's Property Condition Statement for a complete overview of the improvements. The beautifully landscaped property also offers the potential for a by-right subdivision, meeting the required frontage and total square footage requirements. A true gem in one of Atlantic City's most desirable neighborhoods.
