About the Property

Tucked away on a quiet cul-de-sac in Linwood's prestigious Gold Coast, this nearly 3,600-square-foot home offers the location, comfort and abundance of living space that make this neighborhood so highly sought after. At the center of the home is a remarkable chef's kitchen with high-end appliances, quartz countertops, generous prep space and tiered wraparound counter seating. Openings on either side connect the kitchen to a comfortable informal dining area and an enormous formal dining room ready to accommodate a crowd. The adjoining great room completes this impressive central living area, where sunlight streams through the surrounding windows while easy access to the expansive deck and patio extends the living space outdoors. Additional living spaces throughout the home include a s ...
