About the Property

Three bedrooms, three full baths, everything on one level once you're through the door. It's a 10-minute walk (or a 3-minute drive, if the beach chairs and cooler are winning the argument) to the boardwalk — close enough for flip-flops, far enough that the street stays quiet. This first-floor duplex unit on a large corner lot comes turnkey: fully furnished, so you can close and be unpacking beach chairs the same weekend. The math here is the kind vacation home veterans notice fast: a full bath for every bedroom, plus a bunk room already set up to sleep the grandkids or the cousins without anyone camped on the couch. At 1,263 square feet, it's roughly 10% larger than the typical 3-bedroom duplex unit in town — that extra room shows up exactly where you'd want it. The living room center
