About the Property

Queens Ln is arguably one of the most desirable areas in all of Hammonton. It's a neighborhood only often traveled by those that specifically live back there. As you walk through the front door, to your immediate left is your living room (that continues into an office area) to your right is a den featuring a wood burning fireplace. Having more than one sitting/entertainment area is always ideal! Through the den, is the sunroom. It's a perfect place to get away and decompress. Off these areas you have your eat in kitchen (contains original wood cabinets) that opens up into your dining area. There's newer hardwood flooring in the Den/Living Room and kitchen areas. All your bedrooms are upstairs, which also features a full bath in the hallway, that's new within the past several years. Outside ...
