About the Property

In a category of its own, this extraordinary coastal residence presents a rare combination of sophisticated design, exceptional craftsmanship, ocean views and nearly 5,000 square feet of beautifully curated living space, all just one block from the beach. Built in 2020 and maintained to show like new, this six-bedroom, five-full and one-half bath residence delivers the scale of a substantial luxury home with the relaxed sophistication of life at the shore. From the moment you arrive, the pristine curb appeal and impressive double-door entry set the tone for what awaits inside. Across three thoughtfully designed levels connected by elevator, exceptional attention to detail is evident everywhere. Custom shadow-box molding, extensive crown molding and architectural woodwork flow throughout th
