About the Property

A RARE opportunity offering space, privacy, versatility and an impressive equestrian setup, all tucked back from the road with plenty of parking. The property features a barn with four stalls, feed room, hay loft and wash station, along with a riding area and a lean-to providing shade and shelter for the horses. An additional shed and fenced pen area offer even more space for smaller animals, while a chicken coop, garden area and plenty of room for a swing set add to the possibilities this unique property provides. Inside, the home offers a spacious and comfortable floor plan that is wheelchair accessible. A large living room welcomes you with a brick fireplace and mantel and flows toward the rear of the home into a generously sized formal dining room. The renovated eat-in kitchen feature ...
