About the Property

Few properties on Linwood's Gold Coast bring together this level of architecture, scale, privacy and waterfront setting. Occupying nearly an acre along Linwood's coveted Gold Coast, this exceptional custom residence stands in a category entirely its own. Approximately 4,500 square feet of understated coastal elegance unfold against a remarkable natural backdrop, with sweeping views across the marsh and open bay to the Atlantic City skyline. The setting is not merely scenic; it defines the experience of the home. Inside, artisan millwork, newly refinished hardwood floors, shiplap ceilings, exposed beams and custom built-ins establish a level of craftsmanship rarely encountered. The light-filled main living spaces flow effortlessly into a beautifully appointed kitchen featuring honed Car ...
