About the Property

Set within the coveted Gardens neighborhood of Ocean City, just four homes from the beach, 905 Seacrest Road is a distinctive coastal residence where exceptional architecture, thoughtful craftsmanship, and extraordinary water views come together. Situated on a quiet dead-end street, the newly completed 2026 home captures sweeping views of the Atlantic Ocean, Great Egg Harbor Inlet, and Atlantic City skyline, with eastern sunrises and western sunsets providing an ever-changing coastal backdrop. Designed by Thomas / Bechtold Architecture and meticulously crafted by Michael James Custom Builders, this approximately 3,562-square-foot residence offers five bedrooms, five full bathrooms, and one powder room. Four outdoor decks, three distinct living areas, and a four-stop elevator create a seam ...
